

Accounting Manager

with Farming Experience preferably Pistachio/Almond Farming $100K-$130K

Our company has owned and directed a diverse portfolio of assets since 1990; primarily in agricultural land and farming (pistachio, almonds); real estate and equities. We also founded, developed and operate nonprofit organizations.

We are seeking for an Accounting Manager with Pistachio/Almond Farming experience at our Corporate Office located in the West Los Angeles area. The successful candidate must be a hands-on, “roll-up your sleeves” type of manager who thrives in a fast paced environment, has the talent to lead and see the big picture. The Accounting Manager reports directly to the President. The Accounting Manager will assume a prominent role in the overall management of the company, its operations, administration and human resources.

CANDIDATES MUST HAVE THE FOLLOWING QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's degree in Accounting or Finance
- At least 10 or more years of experience as an Accounting Manager
- Proven experience managing projects, other managers, supervisors and staff; monitor performance, and evaluate effectiveness
- Experience in small and/or startup companies
- Computer savvy
- Stable work history
- Candidate must reside within 40 miles of office location (West Los Angeles)

FOLLOWING QUALIFICATIONS ARE A BIG PLUS:

- MBA or CPA
- Graduate from a top university or honor student
- Experience in entrepreneurship
- Previous work experience, including but not limited to: investment operations management, investment analyst, investment portfolio management, real estate development of luxury homes, and financing
- Agricultural industry experience particularly in pistachio/almond farm management
- Ability to speak and communicate in Farsi

We offer a tremendous potential for long term growth, challenges and advancement. Top salary and benefits awaits qualified applicant.
