

Chief Financial Officer (CFO) with Farming Experience preferably Pistachio/Almond Farming $100K-$200K

Our company has owned and directed a diverse portfolio of assets since 1990; primarily in agricultural land and farming (pistachio, almonds); real estate and equities. We have also been making a difference by operating and developing nonprofit organizations.

We have an exciting new opportunity for a CFO with Pistachio/Almond Farming Experience at our Corporate Office located in the West Los Angeles area. We are seeking a CFO who thrives in a fast paced environment, and has the talent to lead and see the big picture. The CFO reports directly to the President. We offer a tremendous potential for long term growth, challenges and advancement.

The CFO will assume a prominent role in the overall management of the company, its operations and administration.

CANDIDATES MUST HAVE THE FOLLOWING QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's degree in Accounting/Finance; CPA preferred
- At least 5 or more years of experience as a CFO
- Proven experience managing projects, managers, supervisors and staff; monitor performance, and evaluate effectiveness.
- Experience in small and/or startup companies
- Computer savvy
- Stable work history
- Candidate must reside within 40 miles of office location (West Los Angeles).

FOLLOWING QUALIFICATIONS ARE A BIG PLUS:

- MBA
- Graduate from a top university or honor student
- Experience in entrepreneurship
- Previous work experience, including but not limited to: investment operations management, investment analyst, investment portfolio management and real estate development of luxury homes
- Agricultural industry experience particularly in pistachio/almond farm management.
- Ability to speak and communicate in Farsi

Top salary and benefits awaits qualified applicant. Salary commensurate to experience.
